The Australia's cargo for Honolula was small, but among the imports was U. S. gold to the amount of $30.

The cargo of the Ho Chung was consigned principally to Chinasse merchants. She brought a large quass, they of matting which will relieve a scarcity existing of late in the focal market.

The only sulfing vessel from the coast now discharging here is the Excelsior. She has an issorted carge of gueral merchandise which was anxiously looked for by our merchants.

There is little worthy of note in the way of shipping intelligence. The Hawaitan schooner Waiehn arrived from Fanqing's Islands on Tuesday, and the American bark Amy Turner arrived yesterday from Boston. The loar Jennie Pitts from the sound with lumber, is reported outside as we pass our report to the printers. The following letter from the Coast will be of interest:

SUGAR—Our supply is exhausted; the diminished receipts from the Islands the third quarter of the year, and the small supply since, also the dismasting and detention at return ports of two cargoes of Formess sugar, has been quite an inconvenience to the trade, especially at this season, when many localities are supplied with all kinds of merchandies for several months. There is some information of interest at hand the last few days, as the prices to be obtained for the next crop of Rawillan, as heretoforn, are subject to a sliding scale. The most important is with reference to the great Restroot product of Europe. European advices of the sugar market are still favorable for the holding interest on account of the continued had reports respecting the nut-
